WATERLOO FUND.

The following is a statement of the management and distribution of the Waterloo Fund, for the relief and benefit of the sufferers from the battle of Waterloo, which was raised by public subscription, commenced at a meeting of merchants, bankers, traders, and others, of the city of London, convened by advertisement, on the 29th June, 1815, and ultimately extended throughout the United Kingdom and its dependencies. A committee was nominated at that meeting, who, with their successors, have gratuitously managed the distribution of the fund to the present time:—

Appropriation.

The following provisions have been made in respect of the British troops and the King's German Legion:—

Annuities for life-

For 53 widows, &c., of officers of various ranks killed.

,, 694 widows of non-commissioned officers and privates killed.

,, 282 disabled-non-commissioned officers and privates.

Temporary annuities, and donations at the cessation of them, or donations only, as the case required.

For 105 children of officers killed.

,, 881 ,, non-commissioned officers and privates killed.

Donations (in cases in which there was neither widow nor child) to the parents and other near or dependent relatives—

Of 226 officers and non-commissioned officers killed.

,, 1033 privates killed.

Donations, proportioned to the severity of the case, as certified.

To 1288 officers and non-commissioned officers wounded.

,, 4799 privates wounded.

In May, 1836, the annuities amounted to about £8,700, and were payable to about 700 persons, aged from 37 to 79 years. The surviving members of the Committee are desirous of transferring the accounts of the trust to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and a Bill is now before Parliament for that purpose.

PROCEEDINGS OF STATISTICAL SOCIETIES.

STATISTICAL SOCIETY OF LONDON.

The last Ordinary Monthly Meeting of the present Session was held on Monday, June 18th, and was very numerously attended. The Earl FITZWILLIAM, President, in the Chair.

The following Gentlemen were balloted for, and were elected Fellows of the Society:—

The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Durham; Samson Ricardo, Esq., Upper Eccleston-street, Belgrave-square; Charles Wykeham Martin, Esq., of Leeds Castle, Kent; George Lillie Craik, Esq., Brompton.

Letters were read from Baron de Humboldt and Dr. Julius, of Hamburgh, acknowledging the receipt of their Diplomas appointing them Foreign Members of the Society.

The first paper read was "On the Sickness and Mortality among the Troops in the West Indies," by Capt. A. M. Tulloch (see page 129).

A paper was then read "On the rate of Mortality amongst Officers retired from the East Indian Army," by Robert Christie, Esq, which will appear in a future number of the Journal.

The following twelve Gentlemen were proposed as Candidates for admission into the Society:-

Lord James Stuart, M.P.; Sir Joseph de Courcy Laffan, Bart.; Lieut.-General William Thornton; The Rev. Dr. Dillon; The Rev. T. Ormerod; Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq.; Hugh Wood, Esq.; Alexander Robertson, Esq.; William Trail, Esq.; John Cameron, Esq.; Samuel G. Hall, Esq.; Thomas Bartrum, Esq.

ROYAL POLYTECHNIC SOCIETY.

In noticing in our last Number the formation of the Geological and Polytechnic Society of the West Riding of Yorkshire, we took occasion to advert to the advantages which it will possess for collecting Statistics of the district in which it is established. We now take the opportunity of pointing out what has been done by a kindred Society—the Royal Polytechnic Society of Cornwall—and of recommending to the Members of the former the adoption of a similar course.

Extract from the Annual Report of the ROYAL CORNWALL POLY-TECHNIC SOCIETY for the year 1837.

"Prizes will in future be given, as resolved during the past year, to statistical essays—a point to which attention has been specially directed by your President, Sir Charles Lemon, who has offered a premium on
